

The average survey report is approximately 28 pages including a color cover sheet with a photo of your boat. Several pictures are also included showing different views of the vessel, inside and out, including hull bottom when possible.

Approximately two working days after the inspection, the survey is emailed or faxed to you. The hard copy with photos, signature, and additional information is forwarded by standard mail.

REPORT OF SURVEY

Adrian J. Volney, Inc.

9240 Griggs Rd. Englewood, FL. 34224
Tel: (941) 828-0456 Fax: (941) 828-0457
Website: adrianvolney.com

Date:

File:

Condition and Value Survey Insurance and Appraisal Survey

To:

Mobil Phone:
Office Phone:
Email:

I. GENERAL

Name of Vessel:
Hull Number:
Registration No:
Type:
Survey Conducted At:

Designer:
Builder:
Model Year:

LOA:	Beam:	Draft:
Approx. weight:

Estimated Fair Market Value: (Approximately)

Market value based on vessel's structurally and mechanically good condition, fixed extra cruising gear, electronics and with all major recommendations complied with as per hull and independent mechanical reports.

Replacement Value: (Approximately $)

Continued on following page...